The Institute for Cuban and Cuban-American Studies and
The Cuban Heritage Collection of the University of Miami Libraries
Goizueta Pavilion

Invite you to a lecture on

“CHALLENGES TO THE U.S.: IRAN, CUBA & VENEZUELA”
by
The Honorable John R. Bolton

INTRODUCTION: Jaime Suchlicki, is Director, Institute for Cuban and Cuban-American Studies, and Emilio Bacardi Moreau Distinguished Professor of History at the University of Miami. He is also editor of “Cuban Affairs,” a quarterly electronic journal published by ICCAS, and the author of Cuba: From Columbus to Castro; Mexico: From Montezuma to the Rise of PAN; and of the recently published Breve Historia de Cuba.

PRESENTER: Ambassador John R. Bolton, is a diplomat and statesmen having served as the U.S. permanent representative to the United Nations from 2005-2006. He has been Under Secretary of State for Arms Control and International Security; Assistant Secretary for International Organization Affairs at the Department of State; Assistant Attorney General, Department of Justice; Assistant Administrator for Program and Policy Coordination and General Counsel at the U.S. Agency for International Development. He is also a Senior Fellow for the American Enterprise Institute and the author of several books including “Surrender is not an Option” (2007). Amb. Bolton was educated at Yale and Yale Law School. As an attorney, Ambassador Bolton was an associate at the Washington Office of Covington & Burling, and a partner in the law firm of Lerner, Reed, Bolton & McManus.

DATE: Friday, January 27, 2012
6:30 Cocktail Reception. Bar courtesy of Bacardi
7:00 Presentation

WHERE: Casa Bacardi/Institute for Cuban and Cuban-American Studies
University of Miami, 1531 Brescia Avenue, Coral Gables

COST: $20.00 donation to support ICCAS (Free to UM students, faculty and staff)

RSVP: The Institute for Cuban and Cuban-American Studies (305) 284-CUBA (2822). Reservations required.

(Made possible by a grant from the Goizueta Family Foundation)